

Teeragit Nasaree Hare

Teeragit Nasaree Hare has an interest in design and an eye for detail. Born 1986, he grew up in New Zealand and later moved to Thailand, receiving a degree in Computer Engineering from King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi. He has graphic design experience on multi-mediums ranging from print art, web design, to motion graphics, and also alternative mediums such as interactive and generative art. With his talent in design and skills from his degree in computer engineering, he does valid web-standards, creative artwork, and dynamic motion graphics.
